An independent center for fine art in a unique late 18th-century farmhouse in the village of Vysoká in the Kokorinsko landscape protected area in Central Bohemia region of Czech Republic. The complex provides facilities for the creation and presentation of contemporary art (exhibition spaces, a multifunctional hall, a courtyard, and accommodation).

We are looking for

Projects by individuals and groups in the field of visual arts and performance with possible intermedia overlaps. We prefer projects created or adapted for the given space. It's open to all artists of diverse disciplines and media (painting, photography, performance, site-specific, land art, audio-visual art, stage design / architecture, and others).

We provide

Hostel-style accommodation (shared rooms including kitchen and bathroom facilities) | A financial contribution* of CZK 1,000 per day | The possibility of co-financing material costs | Use of Farmstudio's material and technical facilities | The opportunity to interact and cooperate with other participants | Presentation of the author and their work as part of the festival and exhibition | Curatorial support | Professional photo documentation.

We require

A brief CV | portfolio/samples of work | project proposal.

* Farmstudio reserves the right to adjust the terms of residence according to the amount of grant support.
